十 七

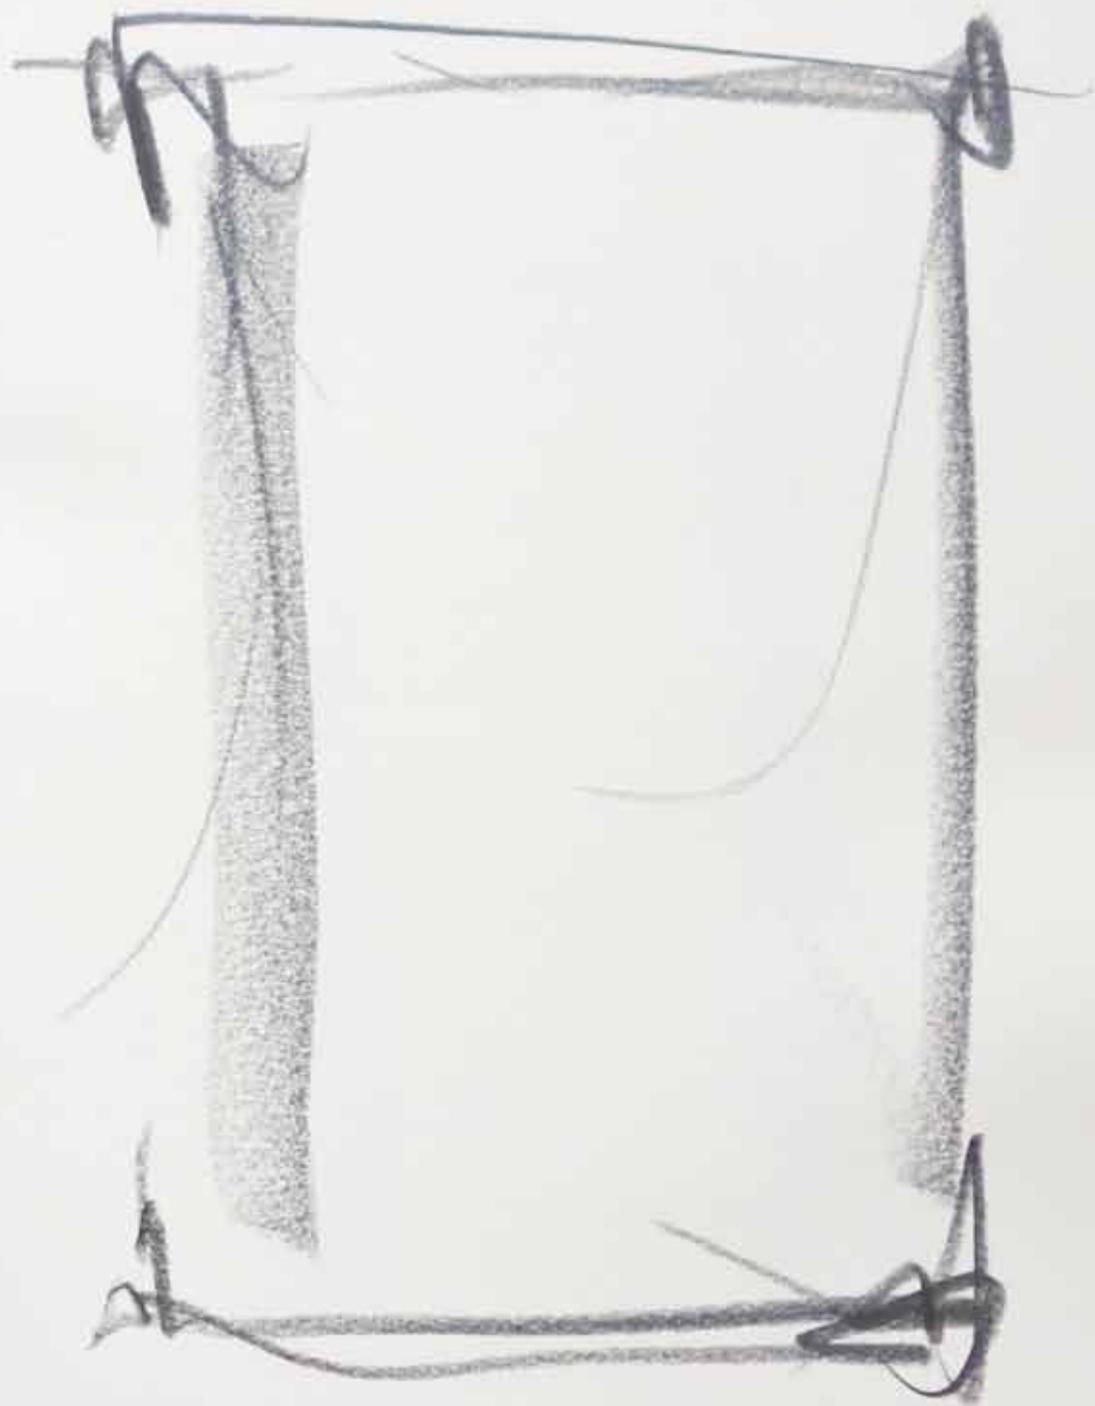

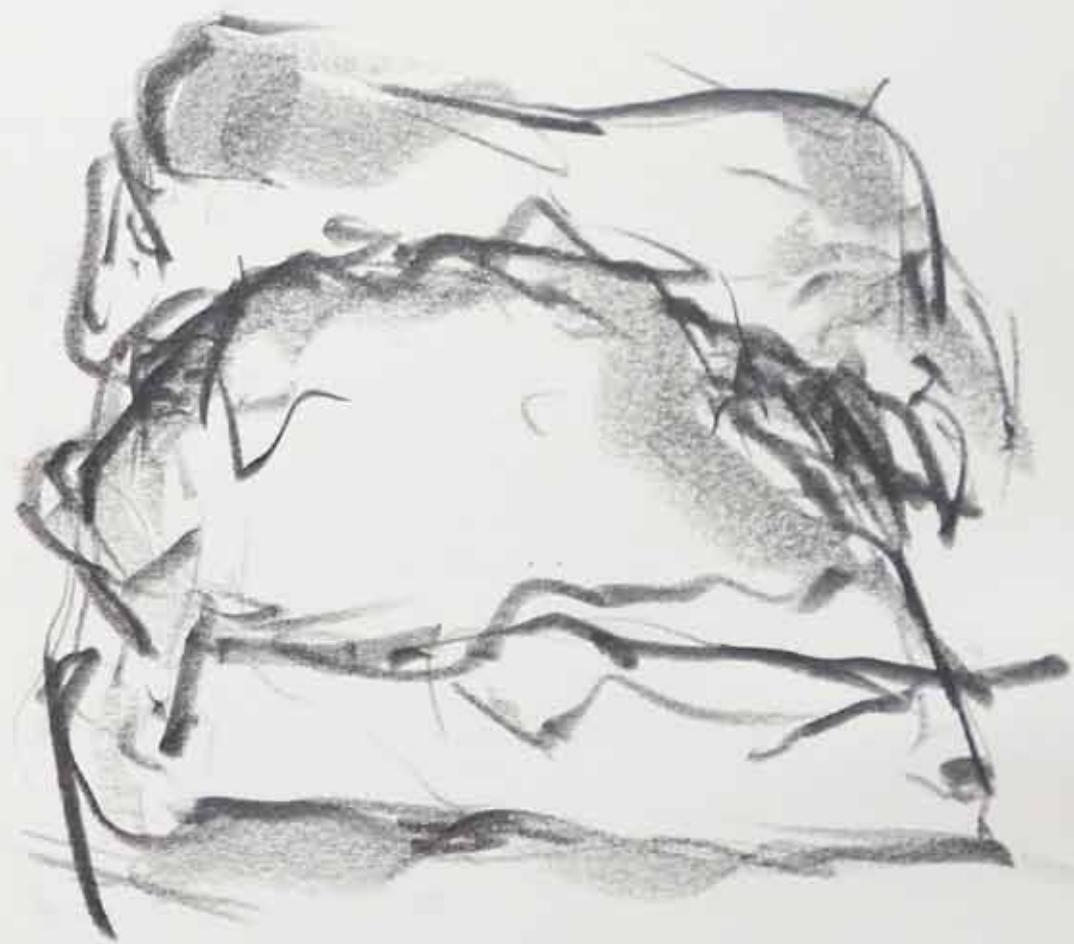

Handwritten cursive script, likely Chinese characters, written in dark ink on the right page of an open notebook. The characters are highly stylized and fluid, characteristic of cursive calligraphy. The left page is blank.

Handwritten Chinese characters in cursive script (caoshu). The characters are arranged in two columns, reading from right to left. The right column contains the characters '草' (grass) and '木' (wood). The left column contains the characters '木' (wood) and '石' (stone). The characters are written with fluid, expressive brushstrokes, showing varying line thickness and some ink bleed-through.
